CHP beefing up force with men, women

Help wanted ads filled

By Marianne Aiken

The California Highway Patrol is looking for a few good men ... and lots of women.

And they have to be able to leap tall buildings in a single bound.

Almost, but not quite.

The CHP is featured heavily in "help wanted" sections these days for two reasons. Gov. George Deukmejian recently called for the quick hiring of 150 new officers to halt the rash of freeway violence. And the force is seeking to round out its crew of 5,000-plus officers with more women and bilingual people.

Women currently make up about 6 percent of the force and 32 percent of each class at the academy for CHP cadets in Bryte, just outside Sacramento.

Attracting women to the field of law enforcement is tougher now than it once was, said Sgt. Don Cox of the CHP's personnel department in Sacramento.

"It's historically been difficult to recruit women for this job. It's not as lucrative as it used to be. Before, the Highway Patrol used to be one of the good-paying, non-traditional jobs out there for women," he said.

Now there are many other, well-paying fields open to women against which the CHP with its $2,300-a-month starting salary must compete.

Prospective applicants who show up to one of the many recruitment seminars the CHP is offering will find — if they decide to appply — that they will be subject to a rigorous background check and be able to perform physical feats that some couch potatos might find Herculean.

The minimum qualifications are a high school diploma, American citizenship, and vision of 20/40, correctable to 20/20.

Applicants have to be the right age, between 20 and 31, and the right height, no more than 6 feet, 6 inches tall.

Applicants who first pass oral and written examinations must be able to run 500 yards (one way around a football field and then some) in two minutes. Upper body strength is measured in three ways. There is also a coordination test.

Then comes the background check. In addition to making applicants fill out extensive forms, the CHP talks to their neighbors to find out what kind of people the hopeful cadets are.

The time from application to appointment could be as long as two years for men, but is considerably less for women: seven to eight months.

"One (reason) is we don't have as many females applying (as) males," Cox said.

Once applicants are accepted to the academy, they're considered hired. And the paychecks start rolling in.

Men will be at the academy for 21 weeks; women 22 weeks.

"You're going to get about two years of college piled into that short time frame," Cox said. "You're required to know a lot of information, not only about departmental regulations but about vehicle codes and penal codes."

Cadets learn accident investigation, laws on search and seizure, how to handle hazardous material, how to do first aid, and how to drive. Cadets have to become certified as emergency medical technicians.

There are a lot of writing assignments at the academy.

"You have to possess the ability to orally and verbally communicate or you're going to have some problems," he said.

A typcial day at the academy starts at 4:45 a.m.

"You're up, you're going to be in the gym by 5:15 a.m. for exercises, running, calisthenics," Cox said. "You're going to be done in time for breakfast at 7 or 7:30 a.m. After that you have to have your room cleaned for possible inspection between 7:30 and 8 a.m. There could be a marching exercise."

Cadets go to class from 8:20 to 11:30 a.m. and again from 1 to 5 p.m.

At 6 p.m. there's a mandatory study hall or cadets work on night problems.

"That's where they go out and make routine traffic stops at night," Cox said. "They may encounter an individual who's intoxicated or resisting arrest."

To graduate, cadets have to pass a pursuit agility test, which is like an obstacle course, within a certain time limit.

"It's pass/fail," Cox said. "Either you pass or you don't. You'll be given a couple of times to remediate. If you fail you'll be disqualified from the academy. We haven't had anybody fail in a long time."

State may pick up tab for courts costs

By Richard Peraza

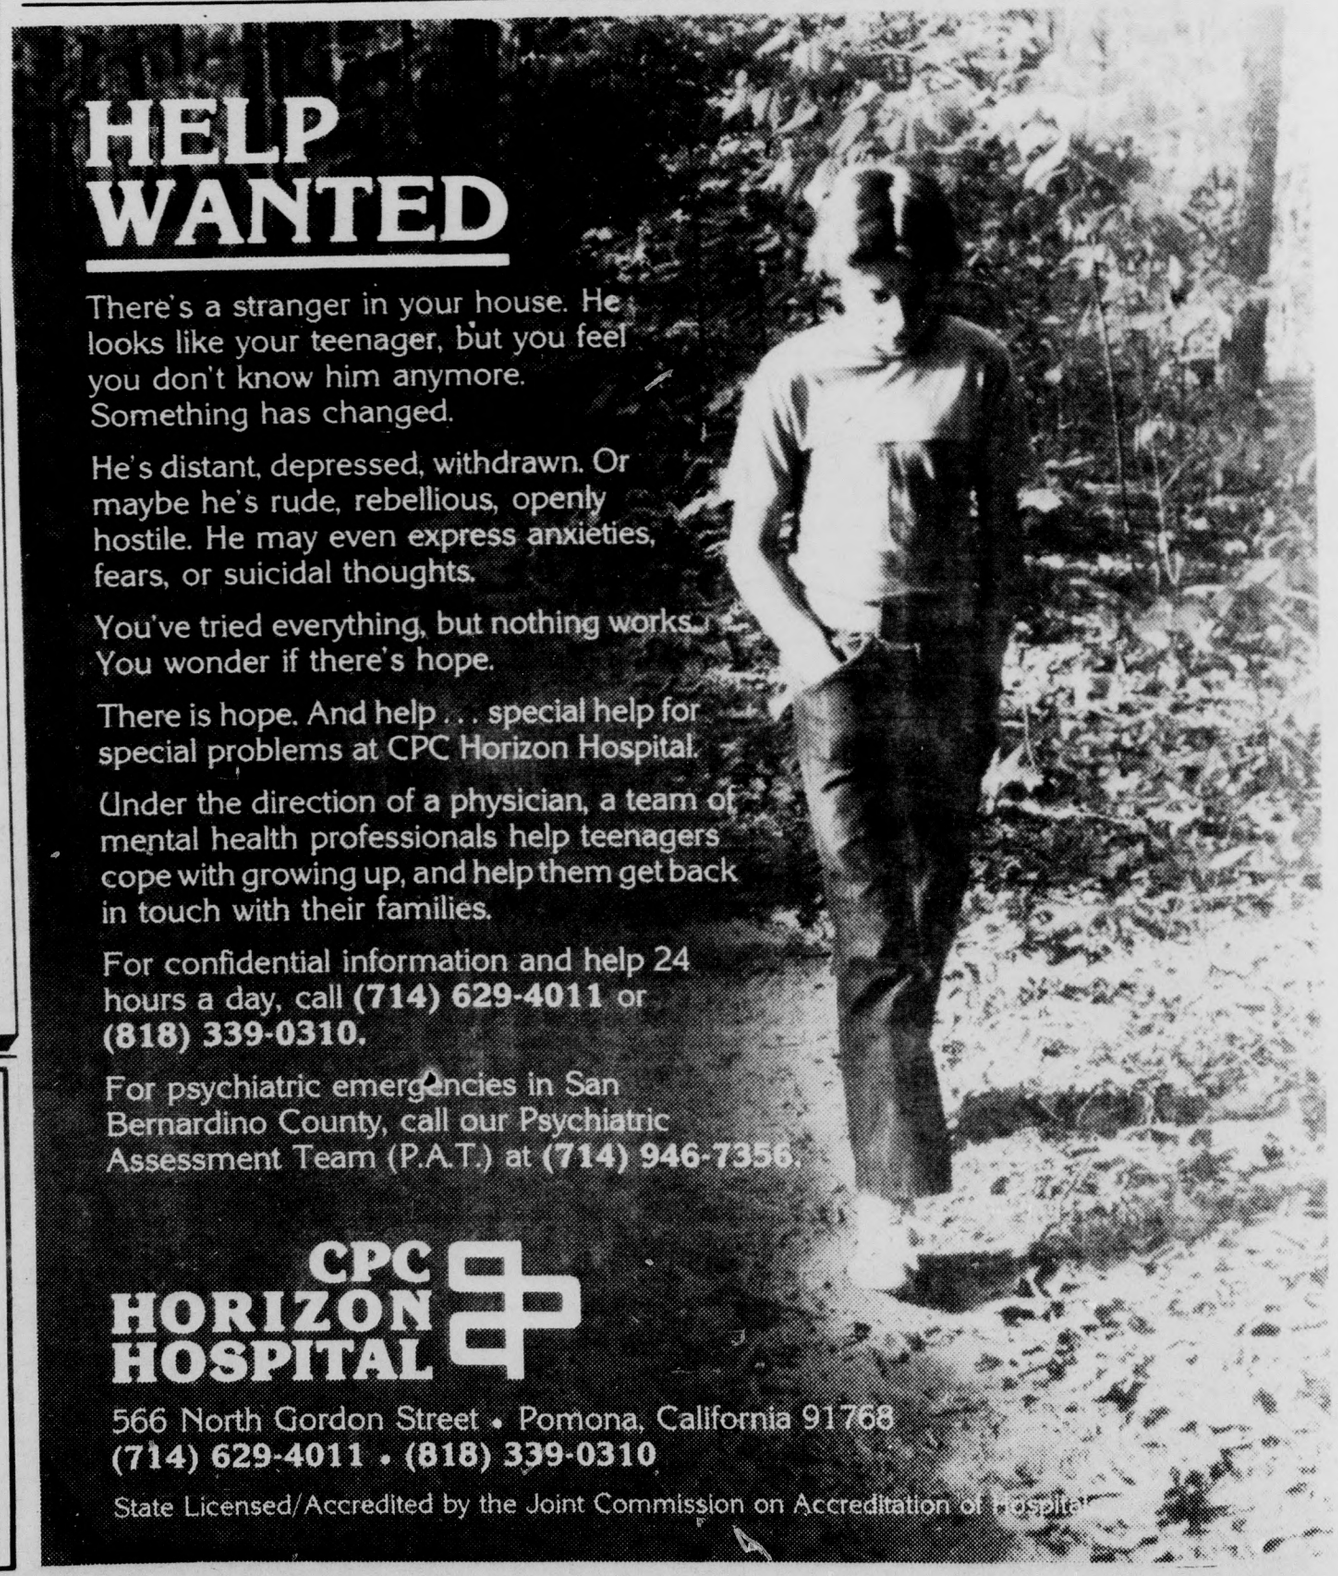

San Bernardino County stands to gain $10 million from 11th-hour passage of legislation which would have the state pick up the tab for operation of courts.

Senate Bill 709, by Sen. Bill Lockyer, D-Hayward, is on the governor's desk, awaiting his signature, after narrow passage by the state Senate early Saturday morning.

The bill will have the state pick up the statewide $777 million tab for court costs, and $48 million bill for new judges.

But the net outlay will come to about $332 million because the state will also collect $456 million counties now get from legal fees and fines, according to Jim Bryant, public information officer for the San Bernardino Sheriff's Department.

The department has been tracking progress of the bill closely for two reasons, according to Sheriff Floyd Tidwell.

Love is your own pumpkin

By Suzanne Sproul

Five months ago Durk Sybesma dug numerous holes in his backyard garden, took a handful of pumpkin seeds and spread them. After sprinkling them lovingly, he let Mother Nature take its course.

And the pumpkins grew to enormous size. One tipped the scales at 90 pounds.

OK, before you start thinking this is just another giant fruit story — well, you're right it is. But this one has a fun twist.

Two months ago, Sybesma took a thin-blade pocket knife and gently pierced the small pumpkins' skins. Sybesma and his wife, Shirley, lovingly etched the names of their six grandchildren and some neighborhood "little friends" on the gourdlike fruits. As they grew, the pumpkins formed tiny scars around the names.

Finally, after 120 days had passed, the regular ripening period for pumpkins, the Sybesmas invited their Ontario grandchildren and some of their friends to the old patch to find their personalized pumpkins.

Amid a garden filled with vegetables and fruit trees, bright orange pumpkins still on their vines sported special signatures — Sherry, 8; Jimmy, 4; Andrew, 1½; Jared, 6; David, 4, and Rachel, 2. Many of the other pumpkins have been given away to friends.

Durk Sybesma with grandchildren Andrew Sybesma and Sherry and Jimmy Jones and pumpkins with each child's name.

"My husband did this just for fun. You should have seen their faces when they found the pumpkins with their names on them," she said.

Sybesma always has enjoyed gardening. "It's my hobby. I relax when I'm growing things."

But since he retired last year, he has more time to devote to his pastime.

Mosquito season reaching it's peak in valley areas

By Elrond Lawrence

The West Valley's mosquito season is reaching its peak and health officials say the potential for mosquito-related diseases is larger than ever.

"This is the worst month for mosquito breeding," said Lyle Stotelmyre, general manager of the West Valley Vector Control District. "Right now, they (mosquitoes) are trying to get a large population to see them through the winter months."

Stotelmyre said last week that while no mosquito-related diseases have been recorded in the West Valley during the last year, his district still is hoping to make a dent in the area's mosquito population.

"So far we've been fortunate," he said, "and we want to keep it that way."

He explained that while no diseases have been reported in the area recently, the West Valley has one of the highest mosquito populations in Southern California. And September, he said, is the month when that population skyrockets.

"We take samples of the population every week of the year," he noted, "and during September, we find the highest numbers (of mosquitoes) in our traps."

Stotelmyre says the danger lies not with the mosquitoes themselves, but with the diseases they can transmit to humans — including malaria, parasites and encephalitis viruses. According to the West

West Valley schools are off to a flying start

By Marianne Aiken

The first day of school went off without a hitch for most West Valley students last week.

Others — especially students new to the area — found themselves waiting in line to change their schedules or see counselors.

Local superintendents said any problems that arose were handled with aplomb.

Enrollment grew by 34 percent over the first-day attendance last year in South Ontario's Mountain View School District, said Superintendent Ed Peltz.

"We had 100 more students than we had guessed," Peltz said.

Most of the growth was at Creek View Elementary School, which had 483 students show up for the first day of school. Last September, 221 students were in attendance.

Three new schools opened last week in the Fontana Unified School District, including two in Southridge Village.

The third new Fontana school, Locust Elementary, "looked like an ant hill with all those little kids there," said Superintendent Tony Lardieri.

Returning students at Upland High School said they found things a little crowded on opening day this year, the first time classes have been in session since the school came under the jurisdiction of the Upland Unified School District on July 1.

One senior said she thought things were more organized under the new regime. Jacqueline Romo said rules are also stricter now than they were last year when the school was under the control of the Chaffey Joint Union High School District.

Romo, 17, said she liked everything about school except her new gym suit, which is emblazened with her name.

"That's the worst. How embarrassing," she said.

In the counseling office of Upland High, Kim Nasbeck, 19, a returning senior, said she found the first day of school "confusing," as she waited to get her schedule changed.

Upland schools Superintendent George Renworth said when he visited the high school that Tuesday morning, registration was going well.

College position is temporarily filled

The last position in Chaffey College's new management structure has been temporarily filled by counselor Elizabeth A. Stark, effective Sept. 1.

Stark, the new acting dean of instruction/summer school, has been with the college since 1974, first as a co-op program coordinator, then as a counselor.

From 1963 to 1974 she was employed by the Chaffey Joint Union High School District as a teacher, said Chaffey College Executive Vice President Jerry Alston.

Stark will be an acting dean for "a year or less," Alston said.

In addition to Alston and Stark, Chaffey College will start the year with three other new administrators: James M. Anderson, vice president of planning and development; David Inglis, assistant to the executive vice president; and Robert Pile, dean of instruction.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church moving

By Lee Peterson

Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Etiwanda is finding a new home.

In response to the population boom in east Rancho Cucamonga, the nearly 40-year-old center of the Etiwanda parish will relocate.

The church already has purchased 14 acres of land in the midst of an area experiencing a housing boom with the construction of the Victoria and Terra Vista planned communities.

The Rev. Fred R. Gaglia said the timing of the move is dependent on how fast planning is conducted and upon the availablity of financing. Gaglia estimated the new church will open its doors in three to four years.

The new site is to the north and west of the intersection of Highland and Etiwanda avenues.

Gaglia said the church, hall, ministry center, rectory and school built at the new location will give Sacred Heart four times as much space as the present location.

The church hopes to use as financing capital the proceeds from the sale of the present church on Foothill Boulevard just east of the Devore (15) Freeway.

The move is coming for two major reasons, Gaglia said. The first being the new location and its centrality to the homes of the parish, and the second is the additional physical room in the new buildings.

More than 800 families belong to Sacred Heart. Parish boundaries are Haven Avenue on the west, the San Bernardino (10) Freeway on the south, Beech Street to the east and the foothills to the north.

The church was established in 1953 in an old winery. Five years later it moved to its present site.

Ed Meath, president of the parish council, said the move is being spurred on by the progress and construction in Rancho Cucamonga.

"It's an opportunity to do something right," Meath said, in light of the strict building and design standards the church would be required to follow.

Sacred Heart recently held a fund-raising festival to help pay for the new site.

Locating in a more residential area is highly important to the congregation, Meath said. At the new location, many of the members will be able to walk to church.

Inland Mediation Board

The Inland Mediation Board is moving to a new office at 420 N. Lemon Ave., Ontario. The new telephone numbers are 984-2254 and (800) 321-0911.

Inland Mediation Board provides the following services: tenant/landlord dispute resolution, housing discrimination complaints, senior shared housing, and FHA default and foreclosure counseling. Office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

OMSD food program

The Ontario-Montclair School District has announced its policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the national school lunch and school breakfast programs. Each school as well as the District Food Services Office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by an interested party.

The eligibility applications for free and reduced price meals determinations are being sent to all households with a letter to parents or guardians. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

SAT preparation

The Assistance League of Upland sponsors classes to help students prepare to take Scholastic Aptitude Tests (SAT) and Preliminary SAT (PSAT) Tests.

Students are taught by credentialed high school teachers, one in English and one in math. The classes emphasize review of knowledge and skills, test taking hints, and the kinds of questions included in the test.

Each course meets six times, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays for three weeks.

The first session begins on Sept. 22. Classes are held at Assistance League at Chapter House, 8593 Archibald Ave., Rancho Cucamonga.

Tuition is $20, including books. To registration, write 459 Greensboro Court, Claremont, Calif., 91711 or call 626-8841 or 624-3756.

"The people at the high school said things are better than they've ever been," he said.

Mike Dirksen, superintendent of the Chaffey Joint Union High School District, predicted 11,800 students would show up at the district's seven high schools. The actual number was 11,801.

First-day numbers are always "soft," said Dirksen.

"Every school I went to, there was a line of students to enroll. There will be maybe an equal number of students who won't have shown up. It will take a week, two weeks for things to settle down," he said.

The 31 schools in the Ontario-Montclair School District had a smooth opening day, with 15,800 students in attendance, said Superintendent George Dibs. It was an increase of 750 over the first day last year.

"We anticipate, based on previous years' experience, that we'll grow another 1,800 to 2,000 students within the next week to 10 days," he said.

The district has extra textbooks, extra teachers, and extra portable classrooms in case they're needed, Dibs said.

School starts today in the Etiwanda and Alta Loma school districts. Etiwanda will open a new elementary school, Windrows School, in the Victoria Planned Community.

Classes start Monday in Chino public schools.

Valley Vector Control office, 28 cases of malaria were reported in San Diego County last year. In addition, Los Angeles and Orange counties experienced 26 cases of St. Louis Encephalitis in 1984, and six more cases in 1985 and 1986.

But while the outbreaks have been recorded in other counties, Stotelmyre says the West Valley has the greatest potential for mosquito-related diseases.

"We do have a lot of mosquitoes in our area," he noted, "more than the other two counties who've had the problems.

"They're seeing the diseases," he warns, "but we have the potential."

Stotelmyre said his district now is trying to control the mosquito population's growth — and also inform residents of ways they can identify and eliminate sources of mosquito breeding.

He said mosquitoes usually require calm bodies of water to breed. He encouraged residents to eliminate standing water around their homes — such as water in buckets, flower pots, old tires, jars and cans. Swimming pools and ornamenatal ponds should be maintained properly, he noted, to prevent breeding.

"What we'd like to do now is get people to help us identify problem areas," he said. He said his office already has identified problem areas in South Ontario, Chino and Montclair. "We think we've identified major sources (of breeding)," he adds, "but we can't see in everyone's backyards."

Residents who are experiencing mosquito problems, or know of suspected breeding grounds, can call the West Valley Vector Control District at 627-0931. Stotelmyre said the office can provide residents with a number of mosquito control measures, such as eliminating or changing breeding sources.

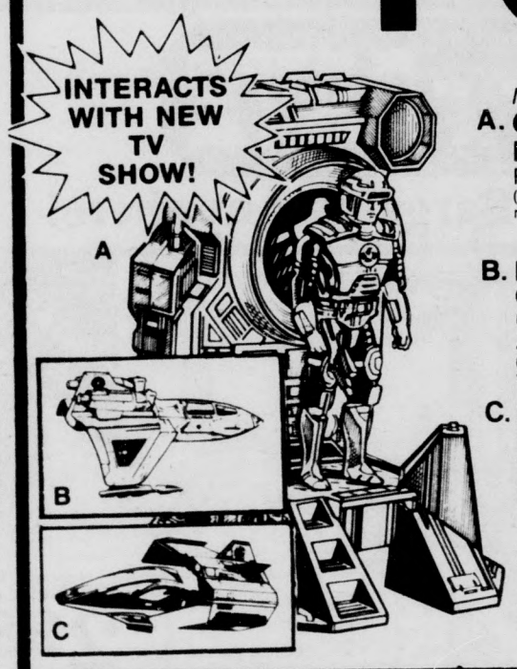

In addition, he said his office can spray an area with an oil-based substance that suffocates the insects — or they can provide residents with "mosquito fish," a guppy-type fish that eats the insects.

YOUR BENEFITS UNDER WORKER'S COMPENSATION

Thomas W. Moga, Attorney At Law

(Board Certified Specialist)

YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A FREE MEDICAL EVALUATION!!!

You are entitled to a free medical evaluation (this is paid for by the insurance company) under the following circumstances:

1. TO PROVE THAT YOU ARE STILL UNABLE TO WORK. Most clients come to us because the insurance company refuses to pay benefits because some doctor has released them to work.
2. IN CONSULTATION. You are entitled to have a physician of your choice advise you in any serious injury.
3. IN CASES WHERE THE INJURY IS BEING DENIED. Heart attacks, nervous breakdowns, chemical poisoning are all cases that insurance companies usually deny.
4. TO EVALUATE YOUR INJURY. Your attorney will not allow the insurance company to settle your case based on their medical evaluation, he will have you examined by a -doctor of your choice.

There are many other occasions where you may be entitled to a "free medical evaluation."

THERE IS NO CHARGE FOR A CONSULTATION ON MATTERS REGARDING WORKERS' COMPENSATION.

Bargains Are Our Business!
Great Values! Low Prices!

Bargains are our business. We buy first quality factory closeouts from major manufacturers, distributors, importers, etc., who, for a variety of reasons (discontinued items, package changes, overstocks, etc.) have elected to close out these items. We buy this merchandise at a fraction of the regular cost and pass the savings on to you, our customers.

Variety is our specialty. Housewares, gifts, toys, stationery, apparel, domestics, luggage, cosmetics and more. You never know what you'll find but whatever you do discover, it will be at a bargain price. And every week, every store receives a full truckload of new merchandise.

How are our Retail Values established? 1.) We use manufacturer's suggested prices to establish a reasonable retail value. And/or 2.) Our buyers compare our prices with other stores.

Is this a Sale? NO! These are our everyday low prices—good until the last piece is sold.

ORDINANCE NO. 1406
ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF UPLAND, AMENDING SECTION 6593.01 OF THE UPLAND MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO REVENUES

The City Council of the City of Upland does hereby ordain:

Section 1. Section 6593.0 of the Upland Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6593.0 Purpose of part. "The city council hereby declares that the fees required to be paid hereby are pursuant to the law made and provided and are solely for the purpose of producing revenue. The continued increase in the development of dwelling units in the city with the intended increase in the population of the city has created an urgency, in that there are insufficient funds available for the increased demand for park sites and facilities, storm drain facilities, street and traffic facilities, and sanitary sewerage collection and treatment facilities to service the increased population of the city."

Section 2. This ordinance shall be signed by the Mayor, attested by the City Clerk, and published in the Upland News in pursuance to the requirements of the California Government Code.

Section 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance shall for any reason be invalid, such holding or holdings shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The City Council has declared that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof be declared invalid.

NOTICE OF DEATH OF RONALD F. WILLIAMS AND OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE CASE NO. PW-5492

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate of: RONALD F. WILLIAMS.

A petition has been filed by MARY V. WILLIAMS in the Superior Court of San Bernardino County requesting that MARY V. WILLIAMS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act.

A hearing on the petition will be held on November 2, 1987 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept.: D1-RC, located at 8303 Haven Avenue, Rancho Cucamonga, California 91730.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should either appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court or present it to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in section 700 of the California Probate Code. The time for filing claims will not expire prior to four months from the date of the hearing noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, and file with the court with proof of service, a written request stating that you desire special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of the petitions or accounts mentioned in sections 1200 and 1200.5 of the California Probate Code.

ORDINANCE NO. 1407
ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF UPLAND AMENDING SECTION 6520.13 AND 6520.14 OF THE UPLAND MUNICIPAL CODE IN REFERENCE TO THE REGULATION OF DANCES

The City Council of the City of Upland does hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6520.13 of the Upland Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

At every dance attended by 125 or more patrons, the Chief of Police of the City of Upland shall have the power to proscribe both the number of City of Upland deputized officers and the times during which they shall be on the premises for the purposes of preserving the health, safety and welfare of those persons both on and off the premises.

Any person proposing a commercially operated dance either on a recurring or non-recurring basis shall make a request in writing to the police chief setting forth the expected number of persons attending the dance, the time of the attendance and the location of the dance. The Police Chief shall thereupon consider the location of the proposed dance, its proximity to adjoining and/or residential neighbors, the oproposed clientele of the dance, including the ages of the persons to be admitted, any violations of law which have taken place on the premises at any previous dances operated under the auspices of the applicant, the applicant's previous experience with dances operated outside the City of Upland, if any, and any other facts which the Police Chief deems necessary for determination as to the number of City of Upland duly deputized police officers and/or reserves which sall be employed to be in attendance at the dance, in addition to the State of California licensed security officers required to be controlling the dance.

SECTION 2. Section 6520.14 of the Upland Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

All such halls, clubs, or places shall close not later than 2:00 a.m. and shall not re-open earlier than 8:00 a.m. on the same day. At all such places any police officer of this city shall have the right to enter the premises upon which the dance is being conducted, and if said dance is being held in violation of the provisions of this code, said officer shall close the dance immediately.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be signed by the Mayor, attested by the City Clerk, and published in the Upland News in pursuance to the requirements of the California Government Code.

SECTION 4. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance shall for any reason be invalid, such holding or holdings shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The City Council has declared that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof be declared invalid.

Give your budget a booster shot by selling your unwanted items. Turn unwanted items into fast, easy money with Daily Report classified ads. They're so inexpensive, yet they reach thousands of buyers with one easy phone call.
Daily Report
Classified Advertising
987-9200

IT'S NO SECRET...
If you have an assignment... like selling a dining room set...or a lawn mower...or a used tuba...you can't do it by keeping the whole thing a secret. You have to tell people about it! And the best way to do that is through the Classified Ads. People in the market for items you may have for sale read the Classified Ads every day...until they find what they want.
So...if you have something for sale, don't keep it secret...call us today and let us tell the whole world about it with an inexpensive Classified Ad!

HOW TO....

WRITE A CLASSIFIED AD THAT WORKS!!

Give readers the information they want and get the results... YOU want.

be complete.

Put yourself in the reader's place. If you were considering buying this item what would you want to know about it? Give the item's age, condition, size, brand name and any other information needed to describe it accurately and completely.

avoid abbreviations.

A few standard abbreviations can help you save space but don't overdo it. Too many abbreviations will make your ad look like a secret coded message. Rather than trying to figure out what you're trying to say, confused readers will go on to the next ad.

include price.

Price is one of the biggest concerns of classified readers. Ads that list prices will get their attention first. Including the price will also help you avoid inquiries from readers not in your price range.

be available.

List your telephone number or address so potential buyers will know HOW to contact you. State the best hours to call so they'll

93 Employment Opportunities

NOTICE
The following rules apply to Class 93, Employment Opportunities.

All Employment ads must state nature of work being offered. Example: Saleswork, Secretary, Soliciting, Driver, etc.

Statements of employee compensation are optional; however, when any dollar amount is listed, means of compensation must also be stated such as salary, hourly, commission, etc.

Employers who require a fee for equipment, application, registration or training, must so state in their ad.

Some ads appearing under this classification may require an investment, it is the responsibility of the reader to determine investment requirements.

Ads offering training must run under Class 17, Schools/Education.

Violations of these rules should be brought to the attention of the Classified Supervisor.
